

Gonzalo Freixes Elected Chair of EMBA Council Board

ORANGE, CALIF., Nov. 29, 2011 – Gonzalo Freixes, associate dean of the Executive and Fully Employed MBA Programs at the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA) Anderson School of Management, was elected chair of the Executive MBA Council Board of Trustees. Freixes began his board term in October 2009 and has held several key positions. He served as treasurer and board vice chair, and most recently, chaired the planning committee for the Executive MBA Council 2011 conference.

Freixes teaches MBA courses in business law, international regulation of business and federal taxation. He also serves as director of the Strategic Management Research and international programs for the UCLA Anderson Executive MBA Program, and has taught courses in international regulation of business in Belgium, Chile, Argentina, Spain, Switzerland and France. Freixes has a doctorate in jurisprudence from Loyola Law School and a master in business taxation from the University of Southern California. He has practiced law in California for more than 32 years.

About the Executive MBA Council

The Executive MBA Council provides a forum for programs to share best practices and gathers industry data. Currently the council includes more than 200 educational institutions that administer 300 plus Executive MBA Programs worldwide. For additional information, visit www.embac.org. To learn more about the EMBA experience, visit www.executivemba.org.

-30-

Media contact:
Paula Mielke
651-492-4143
paula.mielke@embac.org